1. On 27 September 1950 the Neustrelitz (N 54/U 54) barracks installation on the road to Penzlin quartered about 1,500 troops. No training was observed. The soldiers were engaged in various kinds of work, predominantly motor vehicle maintenance, at which about 600 men were seen. Maintenance service was also done on about 20 field kitchens standing in the barracks yard. The number of trucks and the motor traffic were out of proportion to the number of troops quartered in the installation. No heavy weapons were seen.

2. On 27 September 1950 the Alte Kaserno northwest of the railroad station was occupied to capacity by 400 to 500 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets, mostly with artillery insignia but some with tank insignia. About 20 trucks/ [redacted] were seen in the barracks yard. More trucks were parked in the garages. The troops in the billeting area did maintenance work on motor vehicles. (1)
3. Officers, including field officers of all branches of service up to the rank of lieutenant colonel, were observed at the headquarters which is in the restricted area on Glanbecker Lake. The volume of traffic had decreased slightly.
